CHANCELLOR PARK WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents,

Welcome back!

I do hope everyone managed to have a relaxing break and make the most of the glorious weather we had over the bank holiday weekend. We now move into the summer term and have lots of exciting things planned! Our year 6 are getting ready for SATs and preparing themselves for the residential whilst other classes are planning trips and embarking on new topics. We are looking forward to plenty of outside learning and making the most of the summer weather.

Next week we will be circulating term dates, including the rescheduled drop in sessions we had been looking forward to.

Clubs

We have just collated our clubs for the summer term and are delighted to say that we will be opening them across key stages for children to sign up to. Please see the app for the menu and contact the class teachers directly via email to sign up. Thank you

Noah H (Class 6 Elm) 11

Sophia L (Class 4) 9

Zachary B (Class 6 Ok) 11

Reuben M (Class 5) 10

School Uniform Reminder

Please be advised that the children may wear tailored shorts and dark navy checked summer dresses as per our uniform policy. Thank you.

Uniform Supplier Meeting

Next week I have a meeting with one of our school uniform suppliers to review our contract and their services. If anyone has any feedback (for either of our uniform suppliers) they would like me to pass on, or query with them during their visit in relation to supply & availability of items, quality of service experienced or quality of their items etc, please email these to the usual admin address and add 'UNIFORM SUPPLIER FEEDBACK' in the subject for ease of reference by Wednesday at the latest. Thanks in advance for your feedback and I will ensure these are passed on for consideration and their review.

Sun Cream

We have been made aware that Nivea's new sun cream for children now contains Almond oil.

The bottle does not state on the back it contains Almond Oil however, if you go onto the website it lists all the ingredients and it states Organic Almond Oil.

As you are aware we are a nut free setting and do have children with severe nut allergies, I therefore request that this particular sun cream is not sent into school or used on your child before attending please.

Thank you for your cooperation.

PTA Message Board

Hi,

Thank you for your donations for 'Make Your Face Funny day'. We raised £286!! The well-being area is in full swing and has been painted over the Easter Holidays. We are just waiting for the chosen furniture to be checked that it meets all of the Health and Safety requirements and then we can start filling the room up! We have bought wall decorations, chairs, educational toys, books and storage which have all been chosen specifically to help the well-being of the children. I can't wait to share pictures of the room with you once it has been finished!

The next PTA meeting will be held at 8pm on Zoom on WEDNESDAY. We will mainly be discussing the Summer Fayre so if you are able to join, it would be brilliant to have your input.

Thank you and have a lovely weekend 😊
